Chandler A. Lacy is an Associate practicing with the Commercial Litigation and Government Relations Practice Groups. He practices out of the Firm's office in Evansville, Indiana.

Chandler dedicates his practice to ensuring businesses favorably resolve complex commercial disputes and that government entities are able to achieve their goals. He has experience working on matters involving the infringement of businesses' intellectual property rights, municipal ordinance violations, contract breaches, employment-related disputes, and the drafting of municipal ordinances.

This experience, coupled with his time drafting orders relating to discovery disputes as a judicial extern for Judge Matthew P. Brookman of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Indiana and as Managing Editor of the Indiana Law Journal, lets his clients know he treats every issue, no matter how big or small, with all his focus.

Having received his undergraduate degree in Law and Public Policy from Indiana University's O'Neill School of Public and Environmental Affairs and his Juris Doctor from Indiana University's Maurer School of Law, Chandler is an avid Indiana Hoosiers basketball fan. Additionally, Chandler enjoys playing pickleball and spending time with friends and family when he is not practicing law.
